1. Birth Rate

The average annual birth rate in Japan for 1980-1986 was 11.4%. By sex, the birth rate for males was 6.7%, followed by females at 17.2%. The birth rate for the aged 50 and over was 1.1%. The birth rate for the aged 15-49 was 10.5%, followed by the aged 50-59 at 1.2%, then the aged 0-14 at 12.4%. The birth rate for the aged 0-49 was 10.3%, followed by the aged 50-59 at 0.5%, then the aged 0-14 at 12.4%. The birth rate for the aged 0-49 was 10.3%, followed by the aged 50-59 at 0.5%, then the aged 0-14 at 12.4%

2. In-Migrant Rate

The average annual rate of in-migration to Japan for 1980-1986 was 5.4%. The rate of in-migration for males was 3.6%, followed by females at 7.3%. The rate of in-migration for the aged 0-49 was 6.3%, followed by the aged 50-59 at 2.3%, then the aged 0-14 at 8.1%. The rate of in-migration for the aged 0-49 was 6.3%, followed by the aged 50-59 at 2.3%, then the aged 0-14 at 8.1%

3. Rate of Natural Increase

The average annual rate of natural increase for 1980-1986 was 5.1%. When the rate of natural increase of in-migrants is considered, the rate of natural increase in Japan for 1980-1986 was 5.1%. When the rate of natural increase of in-migrants is considered, the rate of natural increase in Japan for 1980-1986 was 5.1%

4. Rate of Social Increase

The average annual rate of social increase for 1980-1986 was 5.1%. When the rate of social increase of in-migrants is considered, the rate of social increase in Japan for 1980-1986 was 5.1%. When the rate of social increase of in-migrants is considered, the rate of social increase in Japan for 1980-1986 was 5.1%